Joshua J. Bennett is a partner at Carter Arnett. Josh has represented both individuals and businesses in high-stakes litigation. Josh's significant litigation experience covers all phases of litigation, including appeal. In his practice, Josh focuses on prosecuting and defending claims of civil rights violations, trademark infringement, patent infringement, theft of trade secrets, premises liability, breach of contract and various business torts, breach of fiduciary duty, deceptive trade practices, Dram Shop violations, and RICO violations.

Josh has successfully litigated cases in federal and state courts throughout Texas, and in California, Alabama, Utah, Ohio, and other states. Josh has also represented clients in appeals before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Fifth and Federal Circuits, and in various Texas state trial and intermediate appellate courts. Josh's success has led to his being recognized as a Texas Rising Star, as published by Thomson Reuters, for each year since 2014. Josh has also been named as one of the Best Lawyers in Dallas by D Magazine in 2016, 2017, and 2018.

Prior to practicing with Carter Arnett, Josh clerked for the Honorable Sim Lake in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas. Josh assisted the judge in deciding over 40 cases, which included several bench and jury trials.
